

Terms of Business

As an international consulting company Ibb-World GmbH, International Business Bridge conducts assignments under the following terms of business:

- The clients who would like to benefit from our services have to be able to complete the application form and pay the annual fee.
- The professional relations between Ibb-World GmbH, International Business Bridge and our clients are based on partnership and mutual trust.
- We are led to give and ask for confidential information. For this reason, the Assignment is based on the principle of exclusivity.
- Our approach and professional work and expertise embody a sense of accuracy, Integrity, objectivity and confidentiality.

• In order to ensure success on Client's behalf, we ask the client to commit to the following responsibilities:

- to provide us with the information and insights necessary to gain a thorough Understanding of the organization and your business.
- information on potential prospects will be treated with the highest degree of Confidentiality, and the circulation and exchange of the business information limited to those individuals involved in the projects.